

Peerless

BECAUSE IT HAS NO EQUAL

The Duncan Taylor Peerless Range is a unique collection of Scotch Whiskies laid down for a minimum of 40 years in the vaults of the distilleries where they were produced. The range consists of Single Malts and Single Grains from Scotland's premium distillers and encompasses full maturation in many differing oak cask types which previously held Bourbon, Sherry or Port.

The losses, due to evaporation, incurred over this lengthy maturation time are extremely high and therefore only a very limited amount of bottles are obtained per cask. Each whisky is bottled in its natural state directly from the cask, at cask strength. A piece of history in a bottle.
